The Jeweler's Harvest.

The holiday season is the jeweler's harvest time.

To ensure an abundant harvest, the farmer must sow good seed: the jeweler must keep good goods.

Good seed grows of itself: good goods sell of themselves.

The small boy in endeavoring to compass the question of holiday expenses, solved the whole question of finance in this: "The thing is to get the mostest fun for the leastest money." The boy was a philosopher, despite his grammar, for he came to the conclusion to buy all Christmas presents of L. P. Husen, the River St. jeweler, because there is no trickery or deceit in his methods. He sells honest goods at honest prices from a well stocked store of the finest goods.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Wheat 92 cents.

The old Third Michigan Infantry will re-unite at Grand Rapids, Dec. 16.

Hope church received an addition of several new members, Sunday morning.

Our merchants are getting their stores and show windows in trim for the display of holiday goods.

The weather prognostications are that from the middle of December to about Jan. 10 the average will be warm.

At Hart a 12-year-old boy was arrested on the streets in an intoxicated condition, and there will be fun for some of the saloonkeepers in consequence.

There are 550 inmates in the Soldiers' Home at Grand Rapids and the prospects are fair that the number will soon reach 700, as the inquiries are more numerous than ever before.

Calhoun county will vote on local option in the spring. The county now receives $24,000 annually in license money from the saloons, and the cutting off of this will be made the chief argument against local prohibition.

In accordance with the request of the common council the members of the fire department met on Friday evening to present their choice for the position of chief engineer. Of the 22 ballots cast John Dinkeloo received 16, the balance being scattering.

At a special election held in the city of North Muskegon Tuesday for the purpose of authorizing the issue of bonds for the erection of a bridge across Muskegon Lake, joining the two cities, the proposition was carried with but two dissenting votes. The bridge will be built this winter and will cost the two cities $50,000.

St. Joseph citizens are making special efforts for an increased appropriation of $200,000 for the improvement of their harbor, this winter, and petitions to that effect are also being circulated at Chicago and other points along the west shore. Col. Ludlow has just completed a special survey of the harbor. Next season there will be five passenger and freight boats running daily—between Benton Harbor, St. Joseph and Chicago, if present plans are carried out.

The recent heavy snow fall reminded our citizens again of the absence of a city ordinance providing for the keeping of our sidewalks free from snow and ice during the winter season. We have been incorporated now twenty five years, and our population has increased to between four and five thousand. There was a time when owing to the many vacant lots throughout the residence part of the city, it might have been impracticable, or a hardship, to enforce a regulation of this kind. We submit however that that time should be considered as having passed. If not, it never will.

A congregational meeting of the Third Ref. church was held Thursday evening, to obtain an expression as to the desirability or preference of the parishioners of changing the Sunday afternoon service, conducted in the Holland language, into an evening service to be conducted in the English language. The proposition was not defeated, and special care was taken to prevent its becoming an issue among the membership, inasmuch as the vote to be taken was purely intended as an informal expression of first preference.

There was a fair attendance and 68 votes were cast, of which less than one-third only favored the proposed change. In this, as in most all Holland speaking churches, the female members are deemed not fit to vote upon matters affecting congregational interests, or the result of the evening might have been different. As it is, this verdict of the meeting had not been anticipated, especially not on the part of the pastor and the consistory, who had been led to believe that a different feeling prevailed. This matter has long been discussed among the membership of the Third church, and undoubtedly the vote is not expressive of individual preferences. It showed however, that when it comes to formal action on a proposition involving a change from the old to the new, a respectable, devout minority will control a majority, lest it might provoke dissatisfaction or rupture. In this connection we desire to make one observation. The past has proven that English speaking congregations can be successfully started among the Hollanders, and in due time grow strong, side by side with the mother church—but there is not a single instance on record where a Holland speaking church has been changed into an English one.

Cloaks at Bertsch's.

Kanters Bros have an article on sale that will promote egg production.

Bailey K. Flagg has been allowed a pension. He served in a Massachusetts regiment.

J. Mason Reynolds, of Grand Rapids, an attorney and political writer of some renown, died at Belmont, Saturday.

List of letters advertised for the week ending Dec. 10th, 1891, at Holland city post office: Mr. G. A. McLaughlin, Mr. Aug. Smith.

G. J. VAN DUREN, P. M.

Married in this city, at the residence of the bride's parents, Wednesday, Dec. 9, by Rev. J. T. Bergen, Edward Bouwman, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Miss Anna Meengs. The new couple will make their home at Jackson, Mich.

At Kiekintveld's the regular lines of goods have been greatly increased for the season's trade, especially books. In albums and toys they claim to be headquarters. The attractions are numerous and the stock on hand has been judiciously selected.

Carpet sweepers are a specialty at Rinck & Co's furniture emporium, Eighth street. This firm is always up with the times, and we respectfully refer our readers to their new advertisement, in another column. Give them a call and satisfy yourselves.

Unity Lodge, F. & A. M., of this city, elected the following officers, Wednesday evening: D. L. Boyd, W. M.; Will Breyman, S. W.; A. S. Tedman, J. W.; E. M. Gillespie, S. D.; W. J. Davidson, J. D.; O. Breyman, sec'y; E. Herold, treas.; A. B. Charter, tyler; L. E. Van Drezzer and A. Self, stewards.

The second lecture in the course arranged by the Board of Superintendents of the Theological Seminary will be delivered by Rev. Samuel Strang of Kalamazoo, in the First Reformed church, on Tuesday evening next, Dec. 15th, at 7:30. Subject: "The mistakes of Ministers." Everybody is invited.

John Weenink, a mason, at work in the new bank block, Wednesday, met with an accident which resulted in the dislocating of his right shoulder. The hoisting rope of the elevator threw him against one of the iron columns, at an unguarded moment. He will be laid up several weeks. Dr. J. G. Huizinga reduced the fracture.

From a copy of the Daily Advocate, Baton Rouge, La., we learn the death at that place, on Sunday, Nov. 22, of Mrs. C. L. Gee, a former resident of this city, aged 41 years. It appears she had been in that city only a few days, having joined her family there, who are connected with the Kickapoo Indian Medicine Company.

The board of education at its meeting on Monday evening authorized the superintendent to close the schools for vacation on Wednesday, the 23rd inst., and that the winter term should open Monday, Jan. 3, 1892.—Coal being used in the new furnace, the supply of wood on hand has been disposed of to L. Kiekintveld's at $1.35 a cord.—It was also decided hereafter not to pay anything for the publishing of the proceedings of the board.

The annual election of officers of A. Van Raalte Post, G. A. R., took place Wednesday evening, and resulted as follows:

Commander—Benjamin Van Raalte, Senior Vice Com.—Louis De Kraker, Junior Vice Com.—Peter De Feyter, Quarter-master—John Van Anrooy, Surgeon—Wm. Van Putten. Chaplain—D. B. K. Van Raalte. Officer of the Day—J. Kramer. Officer of the Guard—R. Van den Berg.

The Post was presented with a fine portrait of the late Dr. Van Raalte and a copy of the Holy Bible, handsomely bound, the gifts of his two sons.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the First State Bank of Holland was held Tuesday afternoon. The report of the board of directors made an excellent showing of the condition of the institution, and closing as it did with a declared dividend of ten per cent, it was satisfactory to the shareholders. The old directors were all re-elected: I. Cappon, J. W. Beardslee, I. Marsilje, G. W. Mokma, H. Kremers, G. J. Kollen, J. W. Garvelink, G. J. Diekema, J. C. Post. The stockholders signified their approval of the proposition to amend the plans of the building now in course of construction, so as to admit of a clock in the tower, provided there is a reasonable assurance that this action on their part, involving an expenditure of $300, will be followed up by the purchase on the part of the citizens of a suitable clock, to become the property of the city.

Do not overlook Mr. Conkright's poetic advertisement.

The Walsh-De Roo Milling Co. are specially prepared this season to supply mill feed. Custom grinding is also receiving due attention, and prompt service is guaranteed.

The railroad gate factory at Jenison is being operated now on a small scale, Mr. Jenison having purchased it. Negotiations are in progress for a continuation of the business there, under a new management.

C. A. Stevenson, the jeweler, returned from Chicago, Thursday, where he has been engaged in the selection of a fine stock of goods for his holiday trade. Our readers will find due announcement elsewhere in our columns. Stevenson's jewelry stock is one of the finest in the city.

Tuesday evening the pupils of Miss L. M. Glazier gave a pianoforte recital at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kanters, Maple street, where an appreciative company passed a pleasant hour listening to a musical programme participated in by the Misses Amy, Grace and Avis Yates, Susie Cappon, Kate Kanters and Minnie Kramer, closing with a duet by Misses Glazier and Kramer.

The run-away of the team of Mr. Sterenberg, of Laketown, Wednesday noon, might have been a serious affair. The horses started from Mr. Beach's store, going west on Eighth street. When opposite the millinery store of the Werkman Sisters one of the horses fell down, bringing both to a standstill. Had it not been for this, they would undoubtedly have dashed into U. De Vries' harness store. Damage light.

Henry Martin, secretary of the Ottawa County Building and Loan Association, tendered his resignation to the board of directors at their last meeting. He briefly explained some of his reasons for so doing, whereupon it was resolved: "That under these circumstances the resignation of the secretary be accepted and that a vote of thanks be tendered Mr. Martin for the able and efficient manner in which he has managed the affairs of the Association, and they much regret that he feels the necessity of retiring". He however still retains his membership as one of the board of directors. The vacancy was filled, by a unanimous vote of those present, by the appointment of C. A. Stevenson as secretary, and Mrs. L. M. Thuerber assistant secretary.

Three or four different complaints were lodged during the past week, by sheriff Vaupell, against John Dyk, Henry Dyk, James Dyk and Peter Van Wingeren, of Olive, aged between 19 and 25 years, for the malicious destruction of personal property. During the past year all sorts of depredations have been cut up in the neighborhood east of Olive Centre, to the great annoyance of the peaceable citizens there, such as cutting harnesses, destroying fences, tearing doors off from barns, cutting wheat bands, and the like. All of which accounts for the arrests made. One trial was held Thursday before Justice Pargelson at Grand Haven, at which the three last named were convicted and sentenced to School Days.

Go to school to-day,
And do not fool your time away;
And if you study very hard,
You will receive a merit card,
Of which, some day,
You will be proud, I dare say.

And you can keep it all through life,
Through all the care and strife,
And it will be a memento of school hours,
When you loved to play among the flowers.

So work very hard,
To receive your merit card.

THE NEWS-BOY.

The other day upon the street,
A little boy I chanced to meet;
He was lame,
But he sold papers, just the same.
Although he had to use a crutch,
He didn't seem to mind it much.

And as he walked along,
He all at once thought of that song
Which he learned when but three,
Under a spreading chestnut tree,
When his brothers and his sisters
Were around,
All sitting on the ground.

As his papers were all sold,
He had no more to hold;
So home he went
To pay his rent;
For his courage never sank,
While he was honest and frank.

He paid his rent without delay,
And as he continued on his way,
He counted on his pay,
For to-morrow, on Thanksgiving Day,
He wished to make his mother glad,
For he did not like to see her sad.

She stood watching for her boy,
And her heart was filled with joy,
For her boy was very good,
And was doing all he could.
So this Thanksgiving Day,
Passed merrily away.

Reminiscence of Stephen L. Lowing.

Those of our readers who have known the late Mr. Lowing will relish the following incident in his life, characteristic of the man and the times. It was sent in by Mr. Potts, correspondent of the G. R. Democrat:

"In the pioneer days of Grand river lumbering the law was seldom appealed to except as an excuse for using force. As a rule the man with the most energy and muscle gathered in the persimmons. In short, legal points were not infrequently decided with fists and clubs.

In 1852 I having entered into a contract with two brothers, at Spring Lake, to deliver them a raft of logs cut from his own land; they to advance money from time to time to defray the expenses of cutting. The brothers failed to advance the money, and when the raft reached Spring Lake, instead of delivering it to them, Lowing sold it to T. W. & N. H. White, also Spring Lake saw-mill men.

Before Lowing had delivered the raft, the brothers put a writ of attachment in the hands of a constable named Samuel Stevens. Lowing heard of it, and secured a writ of replevin and placed it in the hands of another constable named Ward Boyce. A gang of men came with Stevens, armed with his writ of attachment, to take possession of the raft, and as they boarded it were met by the Lowing men and Boyce with the writ of replevin. Boyce commenced to read it to Stevens, but he would not listen. Hy Tripp, one of Lowing's big lieutenants, took Stevens by the throat and compelled him to listen. This secured legal possession of the raft to Lowing again.

The brothers then replevied the raft from Boyce through the sheriff. Lowing then secured a writ against the sheriff and put it in the hands of the coroner. The sheriff replevied from Boyce and the brothers' men undertook to take possession of the raft. Lowing was on hand with the coroner and his writ and replevied from the sheriff. While the coroner was proceeding according to law, with all the dignity becoming his high and important office, Lowing soundly thrashed both of the brothers and kicked one or two of their backers into the river. For a week the crew at White's mill was under instructions to turn out day or night at three blasts of the whistle, while Lowing did picket duty at the raft. Early one morning the brothers and two men named Green quietly boarded the raft. Lowing discovered them, and ran out upon the logs, kicked one of the Greens, who was untying a line, into the river, took a brother in each hand and started for shore, only stopping occasionally, long enough to bump their heads together. Green crawled out and struck at Lowing with a pike-pole. The pole broke in the air and he went into the river again. Lowing won a complete victory and the four beaten men started for home, promising they would never molest the raft again.

However, a few nights later the two determined brothers, one of the Greens and John Shields boarded the raft with a yawl. They had just made their line fast when Lowing put in an appearance with an ox gad about eight feet in length. They all jumped into the yawl, but the rope held it just a convenient distance to allow Lowing's gad full swing, and he thrashed them until they dropped under the seats and begged for mercy. They again promised that they would never return, and they never did."

"Under the Oaks at Jackson."

There is where the Republican Party was born—at least such is the proud assertion of every Michigan Republican. And since other places have recently asserted a claim of having been the cradle that first rocked the "grand old party," Gov. Austin Blair of Jackson, Mich., rises in behalf of his city to resent this assertion. He knows whereof he speaks, for he was present at its birth.

The historical facts in connection with the formal organization of the Republican Party are as follows:

A call for all of the opponents of the extension of slavery in the Territories to meet in a mass-meeting at Jackson, Mich., July 6, 1854, was issued during the last days of June and was signed by several thousand leading citizens in all parts of the State, including Zachariah Chandler, Jacob M. Howard, H. P. Baldwin, Austin Blair, Isaac P. Christy, and others. The signatures filled two newspaper columns in close type.

The response to this appeal was the gathering at Jackson of influential men from all parts of Michigan, representing every shade of anti-slavery feeling and thoroughly alive to the importance of the occasion and the difficulty of the task projected. The convention far outstripped in numbers the preparations for its accommodation, and, after filling to excess the largest hall in the town, it adjourned to meet in a beautiful oak grove, outside the village of Jackson. These historic oak trees have been cleared away twenty years ago, and the grove is now the heart of the residence portion of the city—the present intersection of Franklin and Second streets.

A rude platform erected for speakers was appropriated by the officers of the convention and about thronged a mass of earnest men, the vanguard of the Republican host. David S. Walbridge of Kalamazoo was selected to preside, while J. Van Rensselaer, J. F. Conover, and A. B. Turner acted as secretaries. Jacob M. Howard, Austin Blair, and fourteen others served on the committee on resolutions.

The chairmanship of this important committee fell to Mr. Howard of Detroit, the first Whig Congressman from Michigan. He had prepared a draft of the platform in advance of the convention, and the committee met to consider it under a clump of trees on the outskirts of the grove. No material modifications were made in the document, which was adopted substantially as written by Mr. Howard except that two resolutions, drafted by Austin Blair and relating to State affairs purely, were added. Over the resolution formally christening the new party "Republican" there was no special discussion.

This christening resolution read as follows:

Resolved, That in view of the necessity of battling for the first principles of Republican government and against the scheme of an aristocracy, the most revolting and oppressive with which the earth was ever cursed, or man debased, we will co-operate and be known as Republicans until the contest be terminated.

The claim that Michigan was the first State to organize and name the Republican party cannot be successfully disputed. The convention "under the oaks" in Jackson ante-dates by a week or more all similar bodies. The first Republican convention in Wisconsin was held at Madison July 13, 1854.

The Anti-Nebraska men of Massachusetts met in convention July 19 of the same year, and organized the Republican party in that State. The Republicans in Vermont met July 13.

When Senator Mason of Virginia intimated at one time on the floor of the Senate that the party was born in New England, Senator Chandler very forcibly set down upon him by saying: "The Senator from Virginia has stated that the Republican party originated in New England from know-nothingism. It is not true, sir; it had no such origin; it originated in no such place and from no such source. The Republican party was born in Michigan on the sixth day of July, 1854. It had no origin from know-nothingism, or any other thing, except the outrageous, the infamous repeal of the time-honored Missouri compromise by the Congress of that year. It was christened the Republican party at its birth. It is perfectly evident the Senator from Virginia knows nothing at all about the Republican party, its origin, its ends, or its aims. He does not know anything about its birth or its principles. I merely wish to correct the misapprehension on his part that it was born in New England or anywhere else out of the State of Michigan. There is where it was born, sir, and we glory in the production of such a child."

To these statements may be profitably added the testimony of Henry Wilson, who, after thoroughly investigating the whole subject of the origin of the Republican party, wrote: "But whatever suggestions others may have made, or what action may have been taken elsewhere, to Michigan belongs the honor of being the first State to form and christen the Republican party."

It is true that the Michigan convention of July 6, 1854, was only one development of a vast, national agitation. The forces that gave it being were at work throughout the continent. Like movements were on foot in every Northern State. Kindred bodies met in the same month to take the same action. But to the men who gathered in that midsummer day, "under the oaks at Jackson," belongs the honor of having founded and named the Republican party of today.

THE BOOK TRUST KNOCKED OUT

A Card To The Public.

Some six months ago we began the publication of our reprint of the famous Encyclopædia Britannica in 25 Volumes, which we issued at $1.50 per volume. The price of the English edition always has been and still is $5.00 per volume, and the Scribner edition $5.00 per volume in the cheapest binding.

That the public appreciate so great a bargain is shown by the fact that over half a million volumes of this reprint have been sold in less than six months. This elegant new edition we still offer at the same price, $1.50 per volume. This is the greatest bargain ever known in books.

Better still, we will deliver the set complete on small easy payments, to suit the convenience of customers.

Remember this is not an abridgement, but the great Edinburgh ninth edition, reproduced page for page, with important articles on American subjects rewritten to date by eminent American authors, and new maps, later and better than in any other edition.

We further announce that we have in preparation three volumes of "American Additions and Revisions," thoroughly supplementing the original work. With these supplemental volumes you will have at small cost an Encyclopædia unapproachable in completeness; a thorough "digest of the libraries of the world," and a complete record of current progress and events.

SPECIAL OFFER.—We claim that our reprint compares favorably with the high priced editions in every respect, and in respect to maps, and strength and beauty of bindings is superior to them. In order that this claim may be tested by a personal inspection we make the following proposition: We will furnish volume I. at 60 cts.—a fraction of actual cost—if sent by express. Add 40 cts. postage if wanted by mail. Amount paid for Volume I. will be credited on price of set when ordered.

Drs. Starkey Palen's

TREATMENT BY INHALATION.

1529 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa.

The original and only genuine Compound Oxygen Treatment, that of Drs. Starkey & Palen is a scientific adjustment of the elements of Oxygen and Nitrogen magnetized; and the compound is so condensed and made portable that it is sent all over the world.

It has been in use for more than twenty years; thousands of patients have been treated and one thousand physicians have used it, and recommended it,—a very significant fact.
The great success of our treatment has given rise to a host of imitations, unscrupulous persons; some calling their preparations compound oxygen, often appropriating our testimonials and the names of our patients, to commend worthless concoctions. But any substance made elsewhere or by others and called Compound Oxygen, is spurious.

"Compound Oxygen—Its Mode, Action and Result," is the title of a new book of 200 pages, published by Drs. Starkey & Palen, which gives to all inquirers full information as to this remarkable curative agent, and a record of surprising cures in a wide range of chronic cases—many of them after being abandoned by other physicians. Will be mailed free to any address on application.

Crisp Is at the Helm.

The work of the Fifty-second Congress is now begun. At the meeting on the 8th inst., Mr. Holman, of Indiana, was the first man in the House to address the clerk presiding, Mr. McPherson, and he moved that the body proceed to the election of Speaker. The result is already known; Mr. Crisp, of Georgia, was chosen on the thirtieth ballot. The rest of the session was devoted to the usual work attendant upon the opening of Congress, swearing in the members, assigning of seats, etc. Mr. Springer's motion, that the Speaker appoint committees on rules, accounts, enrolled bills, and mileage, and that the rules of the Fifty-fifth Congress be referred to the first committee, was adopted. The appointment of committees will be the first business attended to.

PRISONERS IN A PANIC.

Exciting Fire in the City Prison at Columbus, Ohio.

At Columbus, Ohio, the city prison was discovered to be on fire early the other morning. The flames spread through the two upper stories and the volume of water thrown drenched the entire building, soaking the cell-rooms beneath. Of the 111 prisoners, eleven were females, and during the height of excitement it was thought best to turn these out. The female prisoners were let loose, and, notwithstanding the cells were being drenched, the male prisoners, although they yelled lustily for liberty, were kept locked. The firemen assured the police that there was no danger of the fire reaching the rooms, and on this assurance the police refused to let them out. The scene was one of indescribable excitement, and hundreds of persons gathered outside of the prison and cried for the release of the unfortunates within. The spectators feared the flames would reach the cell-rooms, but on being assured by Chief Heinmiller that the prisoners were not in danger ceased their demands. Loss, $10,000. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

FIVE MEN BURIED.

One Killed and Several Hurt by a Fire and Explosion at Buffalo.

An explosion occurred in the boiler-room of Lee, Holland & Co.'s planing mill on Court street, Buffalo, causing the death of one man and the injury of several others. The 300 employees had just begun work when fire was discovered in the sawdust under the boilers. The furnaces are fed with this sawdust, which is gathered by a system of blowers. The employees had just succeeded in extinguishing the flames when a loud explosion was heard. The big wall fell out with a crash, and the roof of a passage way fell in upon a score of mill hands who had been at work on the flames. The explosion is believed to have been caused by the generating of gas in the sawdust as it is sucked into the pipes which carry it to the furnaces. The loss will reach $15,000.

TWO NEW STATES.

New Mexico and Arizona Making Strong Claims for Recognition.

New Mexico and Arizona will probably enter the Union of the States before the end of the present Congress. Utah will also be an applicant for admission, and it is claimed that she has a larger population than Wyoming, Idaho and Nevada combined, but the lingering traces of Mormonism will probably keep her out. The enabling acts for New Mexico and Arizona are likely to pass next spring or summer, but the States will not come into the Union early enough to vote for President next year. They may elect their State officers by autumn, but they will not take part in the Presidential election until 1896.

National Democratic Convention.

The Executive Committee of the National Democratic Committee met at the Arlington Hotel, Washington, and decided to call a meeting of the full committee in Washington on Jan. 21 to determine upon the time and place for holding the National Democratic Convention in 1892. The meeting of the Executive Committee was attended by Senators Gorman, Brice, and Barbour. No other business was transacted.

Ravages of La Grippe.

La Grippe appeared at Plainfield, Conn., a month ago, and nine-tenths of the residents have since been its victims. There are now over two hundred cases in town. It is also epidemic in many towns in the vicinity. In Colchester there are hundreds of cases. Bacon Academy was closed on account of the epidemic. Many towns in Rhode Island report a large number of cases.

Death Caused by Fright.

Mrs. Charles Bliss, of East Maine, drove to Binghamton, N. Y., with a span of horses. On the way home the horses were frightened by the puffing of an engine and ran a mile before being stopped. Mrs. Bliss was found holding the reins, but neither moved nor answered when spoken to. She was dead. A physician said her death was due to fright.

GOLD IN LARGE PAYING QUANTITIES.

A Mine Being Successfully Operated at North Hastings, Ont.

If present indications point to anything North Hastings, Ont., has one of the best-paying gold mines ever operated in America. Forty men are working in the mine day and night. The shaft has been sunk a distance of sixty feet. In some cases the dirt has yielded $24 to the ton. The ore is now averaging $18, while $4 or $5 is considered a paying average. The reducing mills have arrived from England and the ore is reduced by a chemical process.

CITIZENS IN A STATE OF TERROR.

Another Murder in Johnson County, Wyo., Supposed to Be the Work of Rustlers. Johnson County, Wyoming, furnishes another assassination. The Tisdale inquest was yet in session when the body of Ranger Jones, another small ranchman, known as a range plater, was brought in. He was found dead in his wagon, shot in the back from ambush twice. This was in a gully on an old road three miles from where Tisdale met his fate. Jones, like Tisdale, had been into Buffalo for supplies. War has been declared, and the contending parties are the rustlers or thieves and those conducting the range beef business in a legitimate manner. Johnson County is thief-ridden. They control the local elections and have organized under a thin disguise to further the common purpose of enriching themselves off the herds of others. This secretly organized society has a membership of 200, and has terrorized Johnson and Sheridan Counties. Over a hundred armed cowboys are on the streets of Buffalo anxious to punish the assassins. A guard has been placed over the guns of the local militia.

FIVE KILLED OUTRIGHT.

Three Trains in a Wreck on the New York and New England.

A terrible accident occurred on the New York and New England Railroad at East Thompson, Conn. The steamboat train bound east and two hours late ran into a freight train at a crossing and five persons were killed outright. Another was burned to death in the smoker, which took fire, and several others were seriously injured, including at least one fatally. The passenger engineer is among the killed. All traffic is blocked. A wrecking train from Norwood with one hundred men has gone to the scene, as also has a special train with physicians from Boston. The Long Island express was passing on the other track at the time and all three trains were piled up. The engineer of the Boston train and his fireman were reported killed. The cars almost immediately took fire, and doctors have been summoned from near-by points. The accident is said to have been due to an open switch.

FOUR FIRE-BUGS CONFESS.

Investigation of the Conspiracy at St. Paul Leads to Startling Disclosures.

The St. Paul police have been busy making arrests in the incendiary conspiracy made public, but only four names of the principals have been made public. Moritz Michael, the leader of the gang, has confessed that he was an incendiary in Chicago when he ran a clothing store on Desplaines street, between Madison and Monroe, and that he has fired seven houses in St. Paul. His uncle, Max Michael, is implicated with him in the last two fires. Julius Rosenthal is mixed up in the same. The fourth prisoner is Ida Gess, whose house burned a month ago and who received her insurance money. Moritz Michael confessed to having received $500 and some jewels from her. The other arrests are of people whose houses mysteriously burned and who are to be put through an inquisition process before their names are given out.

CHAPTER OF DISASTER.

Death by Drowning, Falling Walls, and Railway Wrecks.

Twelve barges loaded with brick, coming down the Hudson, when opposite Croton Point, N. Y., were upset, and about twenty persons drowned. When at Croton Point the swash of the river was so great that the tug was compelled to round to, thus forcing the barges to ride each other. Being loaded and the tide washing high they immediately upset. There were sixty men on the twelve barges and only about thirty came ashore. The accident is attributed by many to the carelessness of the pilot of the tug. Nine mangled and blackened bodies lie at the St. Paul, Minn., morgue as the result of the falling of a partition wall in the Farwell, Ozmun & Kirk Building, which burned two weeks ago. Another man lies dead at the City Hospital from injuries received from falling bricks.

SMOTHERED TO DEATH.

Father, Mother and Three Sons Lose Their Lives in a Fire.

The most distressing loss of life by fire that has occurred in Detroit since the burning of the Tilden school a couple of years ago, took place the other morning. Fire broke out in the grocery store of George J. Reis, and communicating to the dwelling house overhead, smothered to death Reis and his wife and their three sons, Charles, aged 22, and Jesse and Eddie, aged 11 and 7 years, respectively. The last two were found in their bed and the older boy was discovered by the firemen lying upon the floor before a window, as if he had realized the danger and had attempted to make his escape by that egress. The father and mother were found locked in each other's arms at the foot of the stairs leading out into the yard. Their bodies were burned to a crisp.

LOSS MAY REACH $75,000.

Later Particulars of the Sensational Express Robbery Near St. Louis.

The Adams Express Company, it is now stated, will lose about $75,000 by the robbery of the "Frisco night-express car, near Glendale, Mo., by six masked men, and the bold "hold-up" is rapidly developing into a criminal sensation of the first order. The safe of the express company was completely rifled, and although Superintendent Damsel placed the loss in the neighborhood of $20,000 it is now known that the safe contained far more than that amount. Superintendent Damsel refuses to deny or confirm the story that the total loss reaches $75,000, but admits that it exceeded the amount he first gave out as the company's loss.

RUSSELL SAGE HURT.

Assaulted with a Dynamite Bomb by a Crazy Man.

Russell Sage was seriously injured and several persons killed by a dynamite machine exploded in his office at New York, by a lunatic who demanded $1,500,000 of the millionaire's money. Two men and a woman are known to have been killed, while the man who threw the bomb lies dying. Washington Connor, the well-known broker, who has an office in the building, is among the injured.

Killed with a Base-Ball Bat.

While two base-ball teams were playing at Brier Ranch, sixty miles west of San Antonio, Texas, the players began quarreling over a decision of the umpire. William Love struck another player named William Remus with a bat, inflicting injuries from which Remus died soon afterward.

Continues to Improve.

The condition of Cyrus W. Field continues to improve, and his physicians now express the opinion that his final recovery is assured. The confinement of Edward M. Field in an asylum makes three members of the family who have been declared insane.

DEATH WAS PAINLESS.

WIFE MURDERER LOPPY KILLED BY THE CURRENT.

Incidents at the Opening Session of Congress—Two Terribly Fatal Southern Explosions—A Remarkable Well—Thawed the Cartridges—Hoosiers Hunt Rabbits.

Congress in Session.

The Fifty-second Congress is a thing of life. It met at 12 o'clock on the 7th, but almost immediately adjourned. The older and more aristocratic twin, under the presiding genius of the Vice President, became a well-organized body at once. People came from long distances to see it, and at an early hour of the morning the spectators on the terrace of the Capitol looking down Pennsylvania avenue saw a long line of worthy citizens, male and female, marching through the rain. The marchers climbed the steps, entered the building, clogged the corridors and stairways and pressed hard against the doors. Such as chose the Senate were admitted at ten o'clock. Men and women, young, old, and middle-aged, jumped over, fell over, and were pushed over the backs of the seats until the seats and aisles were packed as no one in the House had ever seen them packed before. Such as were fortunate enough to secure tickets to the private gallery fared better, but all were packed and none except the executive and diplomatic galleries, which were only partly filled, contained a fourth of those who craved admittance. When the hands of the clock over the main entrance to the house indicated the hour of 12 o'clock, Clerk McPherson rose and smiling the new-topped Speaker's desk with his gavel called the members to order. It took six good hearty raps to execute his order. Then when a hush was obtained he announced that the roll would be called. It took half an hour to do this, and three hundred and twenty-six members answered to their names.

HEMLOCK GROWING SCARCE.

The Demand for Bark and Lumber Rapidly Exhausting the Supply.

Every day that goes by, says a Pittsburgh dispatch, brightens up the hemlock situation. The trade, which has been dull now for nearly a year, is showing signs of a decided improvement, and observing lumbermen argue that it will never again fall into the slough which it is now emerging from. The reasons given are the growing demand for hemlock lumber as the population of the country grows and the lessening supply. The lumber market was a few years ago exclusively a pine market. Hemlock was looked upon with contempt. A raftman was almost ashamed to run down the river on a hemlock raft, and the hemlock tree had no value in the eye of a woodman except for the "cinnamon" that could be hushed from it and sold for tan-bark.

EXECUTED BY WIRES.

Wife Murderer Lopy Electrocuted at Sing Sing.

Martin D. Lopy was executed at Sing Sing, N. Y. Prison Chaplain Silas G. Edgerton was the first man to emerge from the prison after the execution. He looked very pale and was much agitated. In answer to questions concerning the execution he declined any details, but said it was similar in every respect to the four he witnessed in July. But there was no suffering and no scene. Lopy died easily and went to the chair bravely, giving every one the impression that he did not care whether he lived or not. There were three contacts, the signals being manipulated by Dr. Laudy.

TORN BY AN EXPLOSION.

Two Men Killed and a Sawmill Demolished at Collinsville, Tenn.

The boiler of J. W. Houston's sawmill, at Collinsville, Tenn., exploded, killing two persons and destroying the entire plant. John Smith, the engineer, had his leg cut off below the hip and the rest of his body landed in the forks of a tree 150 feet away. Ed Downes was sitting on a log eating his breakfast. His clothing was torn into shreds and his naked body was found lying fifty yards away. An iron pipe twelve feet long was hurled against a tree with so much force that it pierced it. The loss is $5,000.

SPOUTS FORTH COAL AND SLATE.

Remarkable Freak of an Artesian Well in Springfield, S. D.

J. H. Baldwin, State Engineer of Irrigation, has arrived in Sioux Falls, S. D., from inspecting the artesian well at Springfield, and reports that for the past week the well has been throwing up quantities of soft coal and hundreds of pounds of slate. When the engineer left there had been gathered a ton and a half of soft coal which had been scattered around the well by the force of the stream. The Springfield well is one of the largest in the State and throws a stream thirty feet high.

A Manufacturer's Suicide.

At Trenton, N. J., John T. Stapler, a cracker manufacturer and prominent business man, shot himself dead. His wife was packing the trunks preparatory to a trip to Bermuda with him when the fatal shot was fired. Mr. Stapler had recently purchased an elegant mansion, and had fitted it up in grand style. Previously he had lived very plainly, and it is believed that his new responsibilities and increased cost of living affected his mind.

Explosion of a Steel Furnace.

At Baltimore, while workmen were making repairs to a furnace at the Sparrow Point steel works, a terrific explosion of gas occurred which resulted in the giving way of the lower part of the furnace, fatally injuring three men and more or less seriously wounding several others. The damage to machinery and stock was slight and will be repaired in a few days.

Hundreds of Rabbits Bagged.

As a result of an all-day, four-sided rabbit hunt in Ripley township, near Crawfordsville, Ind., about 1,600 of the long-eared pests were bagged, the winning side killing 533. On account of the recent mild winters rabbits have become a nuisance in that section and match hunts are becoming all the rage.

Tried to Thaw the Cartridges.

At Eagle Gorge, Wash., a workman named Charles Rodgers was killed and a track watchman by the name of Henry O'Neill fatally wounded by an explosion of giant powder. The cartridges were frozen and Rodgers attempted to thaw them out in a bonfire.

Three Millions Untouched.

The private safe box of Frank Jones, president of the Boston & Maine Railroad, was taken from the vaults of the wrecked Maverick Bank at Boston and opened. It was found to contain $3,000,000 in securities and coin, and all was found undisturbed.

Ran on a Reef.

The Pacific Mail's new steamship Nicaragua struck on a sunken reef off Acapulco, San Salvador, and sank. She was built last June by the Cramps for the Central American service of the Pacific Mail and cost $200,000.

FOREIGN TREASURE.

Gold Calore Received in San Francisco from Australia.

Foreign gold has been actually dumped into San Francisco during the past few months. It has arrived in the form of English sovereigns from the Australian banks. The records show that during the past few months over $7,000,000 worth of gold sovereigns has arrived from Sydney and Auckland banks. The Mariposa, which arrived from Australia, brought over nearly $3,000,000 worth of sovereigns, and the bulk of them have been received at the United States mint on Fifth street. All the sovereigns are received into $20 gold pieces and go into circulation. Until this year the imports of sovereigns or other treasure from the colonies has never exceeded $3,000,000. The volume of business has been increasing gradually, however, and will probably be maintained hereafter.

WHISKY FOR A WHALE.

A Demijohn of Liquor Found in the Stomach of a Marine Monster.

A sperm whale forty feet long got over the bar at Ocean City, Md., during the high tide, and was left high and dry on the beach by the receding water. After the leviathan was dead the residents in the neighborhood gathered and cut away the blubber. In cutting open the monster's stomach there were found a number of empty bottles and a five-gallon demijohn, corked and sealed, of excellent rye whisky.

SELLS GOODS BY FORCE.

Novel Means Employed by a Chicago Merchant to Push His Wares.

A Mr. Joyce went into L. Barnett's store at Chicago to price apparel. Not wishing to purchase, he thanked the proprietor of the place and tried to get out. A latch prevented him, and he says, he was set upon from behind and belabored with blows for refusing to purchase the goods he had examined.

MINERS BURIED ALIVE.

Appalling Accident in France, by Which Seventy-eight Men Lost Their Lives.

A terrible mining disaster occurred at St. Etienne, Department of the Loire, the center of one of the richest coalfields in France. Seventy-eight miners lost their lives. An explosion of fire-damp occurred in the Puits de la Manufacture belonging to the St. Etienne Colliery Company.

THREE WERE KILLED.

Fatal Accident on the Reading Road Near Trenton, N. J.

The Philadelphia and Reading Road's fast express ran into a gravel train half a mile east of Pennington, N. J., killing three men, injuring eight and wrecking the passenger engine and three cars. All the killed were track laborers.

Arrested for Blowing a Horn.

Music hath no charms for C. K. Cralle, one of the Omaha Bee press operators, and when his sleep was disturbed by the loud notes of a cornet he jumped out of bed, and going to the police court swore out a warrant for the arrest of J. J. Schmauck, charging him with "making a loud and unusual noise with a horn." Cralle endured Schmauck's music for six weeks, and when forbearance ceased to be a virtue he appealed to the musician, but without touching his heart. Schmauck will fight the case in court.

Met Death on the Track.

A local passenger train bound for Tuckahoe, which left the Grand Central Depot, New York, was wrecked at the junction of the New York Central and Harlem Railroads. Two persons—William Fleming and an unknown man—were killed, and several others were slightly injured.

Cashier Percival Stole Thousands.

At Lewiston, Me., specifications were filed by the Shoe and Leather Bank of Auburn in its suit against the bondsmen of ex-Cashier Percival, showing that Percival's stealings amounted to $187,455.

Robbed an Ohio Bank.

The Fahey Bank at Marion, Ohio, was robbed of over $2,000. The money was not missed for several hours after it was taken, and the thieves made their escape.

Typhoid Fever in an Asylum.

An epidemic of typhoid fever is raging in the Catholic Male Orphanage at Louisville, Ohio. At present twenty-five inmates are down with the disease.

Brice Sued for Taxes.

The Treasurer of Allen County, Ohio, filed suit against United States Senator Calvin S. Brice for $17,350 delinquent taxes.

Exit Dom Pedro.

At Paris, after an illness which has been regarded serious but from which he apparently rallied, Dom Pedro, ex-Emperor of Brazil, died.

Harriott Makes Confession.

Louis Harriott, the slayer of Mrs. Charles T. Reynolds, at Atlantic Highlands, N. J., has confessed that he murdered the woman.

HOLLAND CITY NEWS

G. VAN SCHELVEN, Editor.

SATURDAY, DEC. 12, 1891.

Every new subscriber to the HOLLAND CITY NEWS will receive the paper from now until January 1, 1893, for $1.00, paid in advance.

Taxes.

Tuesday morning the city collector opened his office for the collection of taxes, and the first receipt of the season was issued to Capt. B. Van Ry.

The tax roll of 1891 is the largest ever placed in the hands of the city treasurer, exceeding the one of last year by over $2,800.

The comparison, by funds, with last year, is as follows:

	1891	1890
Poor.....	$ 800	1,100
Library.....	100	100
Fire Dept.....	1,000	700
Water.....	1,750	1,750
Sinking.....	1,496	1,484
General.....	9,156	6,671
School.....	12,010	9,213
County.....	2,236	3,132
State.....	1,488	1,250
	$28,286	$25,400

In addition to the above are special assessments for the improvement of Market, Seventh, Thirteenth, Land, Maple and Pine streets, amounting to $2,480.

It will be noticed that the increase over last year lies largely in the school taxes and in the general fund of the city—in the former, by reason of the renewal of the heating apparatus in the Central and High schools and an increase in the number and salaries of teachers; and in the latter by the purchase of grounds on the north side of Black river and the dredging at the harbor.

The tax-payer as he glances over the roll will find that the increase in taxes is made up in the main by an increase in ground valuation, and that as a rule the average residence holder pays but a trifle more than last year.

Five per cent will be added to all sums paid after Dec. 31.

The Late Simon Schmidt.

Died in this city, Tuesday evening, Dec. 8, SIMON SCHMIDT, aged 78 years. The deceased was but little known to the younger part of our population; yet, with his death passes from among us a historic figure—in many respects a remarkable man, with noble impulses.

Born in Kuchen, Wurtemberg, Feb. 4, 1813, he came to this country in 1847, and prided himself in being the first emigrant from his native place to America. It required moral courage in those days to embark for the New World, emigration being classified as moral treason to the fatherland. After a stay of a few years at Kalamazoo, he came to this place, in 1855, and has since followed the tanner's trade. He commenced by renting a small tannery of the late Mr. Coster, one mile south of the city; afterwards he was associated with the late Mr. Schurr, and with H. Koenigsberg. In 1861 he built a tannery of his own, on the corner of Eighth and Pine streets, which was burned in 1873, after which he connected himself with the C. & B. Leather Co.

Mr. Schmidt was a true philanthropist—a socialist of the highest order. Our earliest recollections of him are those of a radical abolitionist.

His education had not been limited, and he continued a student. In politics he was a Republican. In religious matters he discarded the supernatural. Prohibition was offensive to him. On the economic questions of the day he was a decided socialist, in the noblest sense of that term, and looked upon the co-operative plan as the most humane solution of the labor problem. On that principle he operated his tannery, sharing the profits with the men who worked for and with him.

He was kind-hearted and generous, always ready to help his fellow men, without asking questions. Positive in all his views he was tolerant as to those of others. Among his own countrymen in this locality he occupied a sort of patriarchal position. He was a true liberalist, and notwithstanding his views were known to be the opposite from those that predominated in and characterized this community, he had the universal esteem of all classes. He served the city one term as alderman of his ward.

In 1874 he was attacked by a paralytic stroke, from which he never recovered, and from the effects of which,

as his years advanced, he became more and more helpless, physically. Happily for himself he retained his mental faculties, reading his papers regular as late yet as last summer. To his wife, however, who preceded him in death about three years ago, and to his three surviving children—one son and two daughters—the task of a constant care involved by his utter helplessness has always been a labor of love, most faithfully performed.

A most remarkable incident, worthy of mention, preceded his death.

For years the deceased had laid helpless upon his couch. Unexpectedly, about two weeks ago, he recovered physical strength so that with a little aid he could walk the floor. With it also returned his power of speech. Conscious of the near approach of his dissolution he gave his children certain directions, after which he again relapsed into his former condition, and gradually entered into that repose from which he held there was no awaking.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon, from the residence of the deceased, on Ninth street, Rev. J. T. Bergen conducting the services. As pall bearers were selected Messrs. John Hummel, G. Laepple, R. Habermann, L. Van Sloten, A. Seif and M. Mohr.

The Late Storm.

The storm of last Friday was the severest of the season, reaching and average velocity along the east shore of Lake Michigan of 45 to 50 miles per hour.

In this city no material damage was done. A new building of W. Ten Hage, in course of construction, was lifted off its foundation, and the tin roof of the store of J. W. Bosman was partly carried away. At Ottawa Beach a section of the verandah of the hotel was blown down.

GRAND HAVEN.—Considerable damage was done here, the wind blowing down numerous trees, also the D. & M. semaphore. In the morning the Spring Lake draw bridge was opened to admit the passage of the tug Kaiser Wilhelm, and as the bridge was being swung back it was lifted completely off its foundation into the river. Grant Grew the bridge tender and three foot passengers, were on the bridge at the time. As it was, it is a miracle that all escaped alive. The iron structure of the bridge went all to pieces and is a total wreck. Traffic between the two places is virtually suspended.

The bridge was built 19 years ago by a stock company and has been operated by them as a toll bridge since. This city has twice voted upon the proposition to purchase the structure in order to make it a free bridge, but it was both times defeated. The charter of the bridge company expires next spring, and rather than expend a large sum in repairing the damage wrought by the storm, they propose to present the structure to the city. It is probable the city will accept the offer and immediately proceed to rebuild the bridge and make it free.

The piers at the harbor have also suffered damage. An examination shows that the outer crib of the south pier has been moved some three feet out of line to the south, and also that it has settled down to the level of the water, pulling the next two cribs out of line and breaking them loose from the old work.

As the 6:30 mail train over the D. and M. road was entering the switch yards opposite Kilbourn's Kit factory, it ran into a box car which had blown on the main track. The engine was thrown off the track by the blow, its headlight was broke and front wheels badly damaged. Fortunately no one was injured.

MUSKEGON.—The full violence of the storm was felt at Muskegon Heights, where the immense roof of Kelly Bros. Manufacturing company's new building, 260x50 feet, was carried away to a distance of 500 feet and the upper story of the building was wrecked; damage $5,000. A huge water tank standing on a derrick was blown over upon the building causing still further damage, and the smokestack 100 feet high was also carried away. Signs were torn from their fastenings. Chimneys were toppled over and everything that could be torn loose was scattered about by the wind.

The rumors of an extra session of the legislature to consider the repeal of the new tax-law relative the taxing of mortgages, are again being denied. Steps are being taken at Detroit to make a test case, and have the supreme court pass upon the validity of the law, before the assessment season, next spring, is upon us.

College Items.

The present school year has been on the whole very pleasant and prosperous to both students and professors. The roll shows more names than ever before, and as to the advancement and behavior of the students, at no time in the history of Hope has it had such an orderly and decent set of young men, as at present. Thus far this term nothing has happened which could mar the record made, except one little cloud which for a time has hung over the members of the Sophomore Class. Owing to some misunderstanding with one of the professors, as to the proper time of reciting, the boys have been temporarily placed under the ban and, as it were, ex-communicated from the recitations of the various teachers.

How long this may last, no one can tell, but as long as nothing is done on the part of the professors to ascertain the real bearing of the case, no effort will be made by the boys to be restored in good fellowship. The faculty and class, each by itself, are daily in consultation, but as yet no definite settlement has been reached.

John De Beer and H. Dykhuizen are both on their way to Europe. The former is a member of the Senior Class and has left for the sake of improving his health; the latter is a member of the Freshmen and has left on business.

H. Bruins, of the Sophomore, has so far recovered from his sickness that he has accompanied his father home, to Alto, Wis.

Geo. Dangremont, son of Rev. Dangremont, lately pastor at East Saugatuck, has been taken home on account of a derangement of his mind.

A new literary society has been started by the "A" Class, under the name of the Hope College Literary Society.

We are in receipt of THE EXPOSITION GRAPHIC, a new quarterly issued by the Graphic Company of Chicago, devoted to the World's Columbian Exposition. Portraits of the principal officers of the commission and local directory, scenes of the work of construction in progress at Jackson Park, magnificent views of all the great buildings of the Exposition, engravings showing of Chicago and the other leading cities of the Union, fine full page portraits of President Harrison and Secretary Blaine, engraved by Lautenschlager, and an imposing triple page bird's eye view of the Exposition grounds and buildings from designs by the Bureau of Construction, are some of the more prominent features of this truly ambitious work. If the succeeding issues shall correspond in excellence with the initial number, The Exposition Graphic will become one of the recognized features of the great international event. It is now on sale at all the principal newsstands of the country at 50 cents a copy.

Those Pills.

Dr. F. J. Schouten: Dear Sir—For four years I have been troubled with rheumatism and have experimented with different medicines off and on, but without relief. This winter I was persuaded to try Dr. F. J. Schouten's Anti-rheumatic Pills. Two boxes were sufficient to cure me.

P. WINTER.

Miss Mamie Dickens, who was always known as the favorite daughter of Charles Dickens, has written, for the Christmas number of The Ladies Home Journal, her first story. It is a semi-gothic tale of the romance of an old English manor. Miss Dickens' only piece of literary work previous to this story was the editing of her father's letters for publication. She is said to possess true literary talent.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Arnica salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits, P. W. KANE, Druggist, Holland, and A. De Kruijff, Zeeland.

Read This:

Dr. F. J. Schouten: Dear Sir—About three months ago I bought a box of your anti-rheumatic pills and after using one-half of them I find myself in perfect health. Last year I went to Mt. Clemens, Mich., and although I obtained relief there, it did not cure me. At the urgent desire of some of my friends I tried your anti-rheumatic pills with the above happy result. I deem them the best I have used and I have tried nearly everything.

Respectfully Yours,

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

A Dakota Supper.

DEAR NEWS:

From an old friend in Dakota we learn of a solemn compact made between an old veteran and a young man, party of the first part, and four of our city hunters, parties of the second part. The terms of the agreement were as follows:

"The party of the first part will with his own hands and gun shoot what is known out West as a 'Jack-rabbit,' and send the same by express to the parties of the second part." One of the ladies of the parties of the second part, who is known as an excellent cook of game of all kinds, will prepare the prairie ruminator in the most palatable shape, and the aforementioned parties of the second part do each and severally solemnly agree to each eat a quarter of the animal, at one meal or one sitting. And the parties of the second part further agree and promise that in case any one of the aforesaid parties of the second part fails to eat his quarter, the other three, as the case may be, will hold him fast, and stuff the remaining portion of the quarter down his throat."

In accordance with the above contract, the party of the first part sent to the second parties, a small specimen of the genus prairie mule rabbit, which weighed over ten pounds dressed for the table. The Western sportsman had taken pity on our local parties, as he frequently kills rabbits there weighing 30 or 40 pounds.

But even the small rabbit he sent came near causing a vacation at the college and a temporary vacancy in one of our pulpits.

The animal was duly cooked by the ladies and the four sportsmen sat down to their feast on Monday evening. The two and one-half pounds of rabbit, which each plate contained, soon disappeared, and the quartette finished their repast by devouring a dozen quail, which belonged to the ladies, and a plentiful supply of oysters, cakes, coffee and other delicacies. They then leaned back in their chairs and announced "that they were hungry, and that the Dakota dominion had better send them a Buffalo next time, if he wanted to give them a square meal!"

But the victims were reckoning without their host. The Dakota preacher had not spent the greater part of his life among the blizzards without learning how to finish up a joke on a party of "tender feet." The Jack rabbit is a peculiar creature in many respects, but in none more than in the tenacity with which the galvanic-electro principle contained in its legs clings to the animal while living and to its body after death. This subtle essence enables the animal when living to easily distance the fastest express train, in its flight across the prairie, and still survives the death of the "beast" and affects a person eating it. For this reason, Dakota Indians always indulge in a feast of "jacks," before starting on any journey requiring great speed.

The supper and evening's entertainment being over, the professors and legal luminaries departed for their homes. The moment they reached the outer air, where the cool breeze from the Dakota prairies fanned their cheeks, the spirit of the departed rabbit awoke to consciousness. The effect was instantaneous. One of the three, who had devoured the biggest part of the "bird," started across lots for home, regardless of fences, etc. His fond wife clung to his coat tails and finally brought him down to a 2:40 gait by the time they reached home. The two other gentlemen and their wives had a similar experience. After entering their homes the "rabbit" became quiet for a time, but when sleep had closed the eyelids of the four bold gourmands the monster returned to them. We draw the curtain on the experiences of the night.

The next day one of the party, who is a famous hunter, possessed by an irresistible impulse, set forth, with dog and gun. The spirit of the Dakota supper still lingered in him and when he reached the hunting grounds the manner in which the good man leaped over fences, stumps and small trees, astonished his faithful old dog Towser.

Luckily, the rabbit was a small one and after two or three days its effect on the parties disappeared. But they all agree that it will not do to joke with a dominé from the wild and woolly West.

ated panels. The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church did not forget Edward, for he had been a faithful Sunday school scholar and a regular attendant at church and prayer-meeting while his home was in Holland, and a cross covered with flowers was placed over his remains as an emblem of victory to him who had borne the burdens of life as a Christian. The senior class of the High school brought a bouquet of flowers filled with fragrance, to show their tender sympathy with one of their class mates whose brother was no more.

All these flowers were like gentle dew to the bleeding hearts of a faithful wife, mourning parents, and brother and sisters.

How sad is the final hour of separation from those we truly love. Dear mourners, we sympathize with you and drop a silent tear, while we hope that Edward has but laid his garments by to be clothed with immortality.

God's thoughts are high, His love is wise,
His words a cure intend:
And though He does not always smile,
He loves unto the end.

Scrofula, boils, pimples, rheumatism, catarrh, and all other blood diseases.

"There can be no question as to the superiority of Ayer's Sarsaparilla over all other blood-purifiers. If this was not the case, the demand for it, instead of increasing yearly, would have ceased long ago, like so many other blood medicines I could name."—F. L. Nickerson, Druggist, 75 Chelsea st., Charlestown, Mass.

"Two years ago I was troubled with salt-rheum. It was all over my body, and nothing the doctors did for me was of any avail. At last I took four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was completely cured. I can sincerely recommend it as a splendid blood-purifier."—J. S. Burt, Upper Keswick, New Brunswick.

"My sister was afflicted with a severe case of

SCROFULA

Our doctor recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla as being the best blood-purifier within his experience. We gave her this medicine, and a complete cure was the result."—Wm. O. Jenkins, Dewees, Neb.

A POPULAR FAMILY.

JENNIE: "How is it, Kate, that you always seem to 'catch on' to the latest new thing? Do what I may, you always seem to get ahead of me."

KATE: "I don't know. I certainly do not make any exertion in that direction."

JENNIE: "Well, during the last few months, for example, you have taken up painting, without any teacher: you came to the rescue when Miss Lathrop deserted her Delsarte class so suddenly, and certainly we are all improving in grace under your instruction; I heard you telling Tommy Eames last evening how his club made mistakes in playing baseball; you seem to be up on all the latest 'fads,' and know just what to do under all circumstances; you entertain beautifully; and in the last month you have improved so in health, owing, you tell me, to your physical culture exercises. Where do you get all of your information from in this little out-of-the-way place?—for you never go to the city."

KATE: "Why, Jennie, you will make me vain. I have only one source of information, but it is surprising how it meets all wants. I very seldom hear of anything new but what the next few days bring me full information on the subject. Magic? No! Magic? No! And a great treasure it is to us all, for it really furnishes the reading for the whole household; father has given up his magazine that he has taken for years, as he says this one gives more and better information on the subjects of the day; and mother says that it is that that makes her such a famous housekeeper. In fact, we all agree that it is the only really FAMILY magazine published, as we have sent for samples of all of them, and find that one is all for men, another all for women, and another for children only, while this one suits every one of us; so we only need to take one instead of several, and that is where the economy comes in, for it is only $2.00 a year. Perhaps you think I am too lavish in my praise; but I will let you see ours, or, better still, send 10 cents to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a sample copy, and I shall always consider that I have done you a great favor; and may be you will be cutting us out, as you say we have the reputation of being the best informed family in town. If that be so, it is Demorest's Family Magazine that does it."

For the HOLLAND CITY NEWS: Obituary.

Tuesday, Dec. 8th, the sad tidings reached us that typhoid malaria had taken from us EDWARD JACOBUS. It is sad and solemn to behold a young man of 24 years and 10 months, in the beauty and strength of manhood, to be thus cut off by the cruel sickle of time.

The funeral was held in the M. E. church, Wednesday afternoon, Revs. Barget and Bergen officiating. The services were sad and impressive, and were largely attended.

Edward Jacobus had many friends, which was shown by the costly and beautiful flowers placed upon his coffin: From friends and railroad employees at New Buffalo a tasteful and appropriate emblem of choicest flowers, "Gates Ajar," from the "Eastern Star" of which he was a member, two decor-

Zeeland.

Monday evening Arie Van Bree, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens passed away, quietly, at his 80th year, after a very brief illness. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon, from the First Ref. church, of which he has been an elder for over 40 years, and which position he held to the time of his death, having been re-elected only last Thanksgiving. Owing to the illness of Rev. J. Kremer, pastor of the church, Revs. N. M. Stefens, J. Van der Meulen and H. E. Dosker conducted the funeral services. In the death of A. Van Bree the church loses a man whose place can not easily be filled. He was noted for his loyalty and christian integrity and faithfulness.

Wednesday afternoon, as Albert T. Huijzinga of Beaverdam was on his way home from Holland, near Scholten's bridge, he was met by a buggy containing three females. As a matter of precaution he halted out of the road for them, in order to let them pass. But instead of appreciating his courtesy they drove straight into his buggy, breaking one of the wheels. Mr. H. was thrown out, on the road, and picked himself up with a bruised face, blackened eye and his coat all torn. He insisted that the three occupants of the buggy give him their names and held on to their horse, whereupon the latter began to apply the whip, to the horse, and incidentally also to Mr. H. By this time two of the neighbors appeared upon the scene and assisted Mr. Huijzinga in getting his buggy in shape. It is said that of the three females, one belonged in Olive, one in Holland city and as to the third, it is hard to locate her.

Grand Haven.

A letter received from San Gabriel, Cal., states that Mrs. Dwight Cutler is slowly but steadily improving from her recent severe illness.

At a recent meeting of the board of review of the national trotting association, at Chicago, the application of Dr. J. B. McNett, for the release of the bay mare Crepe McNett alias Susie W. from expulsion imposed on Nov. 6, 1890, was granted.

Thirteen deer have been captured this season in Spring Lake township, within three miles of the village.

The Cutler & Savidge Lumber company operating in Oscoda county, gets rid of all its stump lands by selling them to employees on easy terms, instead of letting them go to the state for taxes.

The city council will increase the number of electric street lights.

Josh Lehman shot a wild turkey the other day, that was perched on the roof of the First Ref. church.

Allegan County.

Plainwell citizens are trying to raise a bonus of $2,000 to induce a vehicle manufactory from Kalamazoo to locate there.

During the annual meeting of the West Michigan Fruit Grower's Society in Ganges on Dec. 17-19, plans for an exhibition of Western Michigan fruit at the world's fair will figure prominently in the discussions.

Judge Arnold was unable to open the December term, at Allegan Monday on account of illness. Judge Palmer, of Big Rapids, has promised to open court for him next Monday.

Miss Nellie Manson, for a number of years clerk in the Allegan postoffice and highly respected, was found unconscious Wednesday morning in her room. She died at 6:30 in the evening from apoplexy.

Port Sheldon.

We are having very curious weather of late. Old Borealis has been blowing his horn and has scattered the trees and fences in all directions. The farmers were in hopes of having some sleighing, but it looks as if it is going to be like the past two years, simply to get our sleighs ready to let people see we have them.

J. Schaefer has begun his new home and hopes to occupy it in about four or five weeks.

We have lost our new neighbor, who tried to clear all the land round these parts last summer by burning out his land. But a bit farming did not pay, so he has gone for a better hunting ground. H. A. Wondrower has got possession of his land again, minus the fence posts, which the above named party forgot, or did not mean to, replace.

Our vicinity was greeted with a first class runaway last week. R. Merritt of Olive Centre was down at the mouth and his team thought they would take a run on their own hook. They made up the road and over the hills and out on the Grand Haven road until Mr. Cook and his son at the bridge stopped them, or they would have been running yet. Luckily no damage was done except trying to knock a few stumps out of the road. They run over two and a half miles.

Wood haulers are having their harvest, with the prospects of a rise in prices. Wood is beginning to get scarce, and the fires last summer will cause a deal of it to be cut to save it for fire wood.

Rumors have it that our township board is contemplating of having another polling place at the spring election, so as to get a full vote of the township in the fractional part. The most central part of the fractional town is Port Sheldon, and the voters all say: locate it here.

PEUDONYM.

The harsh, drastic purgatives, once deemed so indispensable, have given place to milder and more skillfully prepared laxatives; hence the great and growing demand for Ayer's Pills. Physicians everywhere recommend them for costiveness, indigestion, and liver complaints.

EXPLAINED.

It's because of the antiseptic properties of Menthol that Cushman's Menthol Balm excels all other ointments in curing cuts, bruises, burns, chapped hands, sores, ulcers, salt rheum and all skin diseases. For all the many uses of a family it is quickest to relieve pain and allay inflammation. Twenty-five cents per box. A 5c box free while they last. For sale and guaranteed by H. Walsh's Drug Store. 8-4w

Itch on human and horses and all animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by Heber Walsh, druggist, Holland, Mich. 42-6m.

TWO OPINIONS.

The opinion of Dr. Browne, Surgeon to the Central London Throat and Ear Hospital, appears in the London Medical Press Jan. 8, 1890: "For cold in the head, catarrh, sore throat, asthma and bronchitis, I prescribe Cushman's Menthol Inhaler to the extent of hundreds per annum."

Dr. Bishop, Surgeon to the Illinois Charitable Eye and Ear Infirmary, writes, Nov. 8, 1890: "I am constantly using and prescribing Cushman's Menthol Inhaler."

These testimonials are from the very highest medical authority; but five minutes use of the Inhaler itself is more convincing. You will find it neat, convenient, and pleasant to use, giving almost instant relief. Costs 50c and lasts a year. Guaranteed. A free trial at H. Walsh's Drug Store. 8-4w

THE NEW WEBSTER

Successor of the Unabridged.

WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

A GRAND INVESTMENT

For the Family, the School or the Library.

The work of revision occupied over ten years, more than a hundred editorial laborers having been employed, and over $300,000 expended before the first copy was printed.

SOLD BY ALL BOOKSELLERS.

A Pamphlet of specimen pages, illustrations, testimonials, etc., sent free by the publishers.

Caution is needed in purchasing a dictionary, as photographic reprints of a comparatively worthless edition of Webster are being marketed under various names, often by misrepresentation.

GET THE BEST.
